A PARTNER YOU CAN TRUST

Since 2013, Novel has been an industry leader focused on high quality vaping solutions. Our "Novel Pure Vape" brand of cartridges, disposables and batteries are designed to pass the strictest testing standards and deliver the purest tasting vape all while giving your customers the quality and confidence they require.

NOVEL SHENZHEN

In 2013, founders James Chen & Janice Chen, surrounded by their hand picked team of professionals, began building their vision of what a high quality vape manufacturing company should be. Focusing on the highest level of customer satisfaction paired with the healthiest solutions for the end users enjoyment, Novel was born.

With a history of being focused on high quality & innovation, Novel is now proudly launching "Novel Pure Vape" brand of cartridges, disposables and batteries guaranteed to pass the strictest government testing standards to deliver the purest vape.

Novel offers a full line of vaping solutions to meet all customer needs. Whether you are a large Multi-State Operator looking to private label or a single location shop, we have the ability to design, brand and produce your ideal vape solution.

Novel Pure Vape incorporates a tailored set of services at a competitive price all while alleviating any concerns about product quality or purity. Novel has provided vaping solutions to Europe, the Middle East, North & South America, and we continue to expand our customer base through great partnerships and the highest quality products.

NOVEL NORTH AMERICA

Impressed by the health & lifestyle benefits of cannabis, Armen saw the need for a pure, healthy vaping solution that consumers could trust.

In 2018, Armen began searching for a partner to share his vision. During his travels to China for meetings with numerous manufacturers, he met James Chen & Janice Chen of Novel in Shenzhen. Their dedication to corporate culture, innovation, and product quality set Novel apart.

After forming a friendship and partnership with James & Janice, the next clear step was to bring the innovation of Novel Pure Vape to North America.

With a focus on providing the best service to its North American customers, we opened our first sales & service office in the Northeastern United States. With future plans of expansion into other regions, this move provides convenient hours of operation, a more efficient product delivery system, and best of all, a friendly voice on the phone or in person when you need us.
